

Enclosure B

to the Regulations for Electrical Installation at Events Held at Expocentre Fairgrounds

Division of Liability Act for the Operation of Electrical Equipment Rated at Max. 1000 V

Moscow

Date _____

We the undersigned

- Representative of Expocentre AO _____ acting under the Power of Attorney

- Representative of _____ (Company name)

hereinafter referred to as the Event Organizer (Contractor) acting under _____ have concluded the Act as follows

1. Electric power supply to the equipment and decorations of the event organized by the Event Organizer (Contractor) in _____ (pavilion, premises, open-air site)

is provided from the distribution network (380 V) of Expocentre AO.

2. Expocentre AO shall

- provide Category II secure power supply in compliance with the Section 1.2 of the Electrical Installation Regulations (PUE), Edition No.7
- maintain constant voltage on the division of liability border in compliance with GOST 13109-97; 380 V \pm 5% being standard allowable deviation, 380 V \pm 10% being maximum allowable deviation.

3. Liability for operating electrical equipment shall be divided between Expocentre AO and the Event Organizer (Contractor) along the border formed by the cable terminals of the Event Organizer where they are connected to the power supply source.

4. The Event Organizer (Contractor) shall be responsible for operation of the power supply cables, ___ power switchboards, all electrical equipment and networks of event equipment and decorations.

5. Expocentre shall be responsible for operation of the power supply source connected to terminals of power supply cables of switchboards in its zone of operational liability.

6. The Event Organizer (Contractor) shall be prohibited from connecting additional electrical equipment/devices not specified in the Application.

7. The Event Organizer (Contractor) shall provide Expocentre's authorized persons with free access to all electrical equipment and installations located on the rented premises for technical inspection.

8. Following persons shall be in charge of operation and maintenance of electrical equipment and compliance to fire and electrical safety regulations on their own side of the division border

- on the part of Expocentre AO _____ tel.
(Position, full name)
+ 7 (499) 795-27-76

- on the part of the Event Organizer (Contractor) _____, tel. _____
(Position, full name)

Signatures of the Parties

Expocentre AO

Event Organizer (Contractor)

(Signature, full name)

(Signature, full name)